

EMILY Award

The EMILY award is reserved for individual women who have shown exceptional courage, determination, innovation and commitment to issues, reforms and practices that promote and progress women's position in Australian society. Such a recipient may have also increased access to important and often essential services that women may require, desire or need.

The winner of the EMILY Award will:

- be a member of EMILY's List
- be an EMILY's list volunteer who has made a major ongoing contribution to the promotion of the EMILY's List principles of choice, equity, childcare, equal pay and diversity.

The winner will be decided by EMILY's List's national committee on the basis of nominations received from members of EMILY's List.

Please fill in the nomination form and submit it to:
