

Mollie Smith Award

The Mollie Smith Award is presented annually by her family to honour their mother Mollie Smith's many years of volunteer service to the Labor Party. Mollie is honoured for her support for issues affecting women, her community work and her mentoring of young women interested in politics and community action.

The winner/s of the Mollie Smith Award will be current EMILY's List members and volunteers who have made a major ongoing contribution to the organisation in such areas as:

- political campaigning
- administration
- mentoring
- fundraising
- training
- communications and membership

Winners cannot be a current member of EMILY's List's national committee, as this committee decides the award recipient/s.

Winners will also be active in encouraging women to join and participate in EMILY's List and have demonstrated a commitment to EMILY's List's principles
